MY MARY ANN.

PIANO

The musical score is written in 2/4 time. It begins with a piano introduction consisting of two staves. The first system of piano accompaniment has four measures. The second system also has four measures. The vocal melody enters in the third system with the lyrics "Fare you well, my own Mary Ann, Fare you well for a while, For the". The piano accompaniment continues with chords. The fourth system of piano accompaniment has four measures. The vocal melody continues with the lyrics "Ship it is ready and the wind it is fair, And I am bound for the Sea, Mary Ann, and". The piano accompaniment concludes with four measures.

I am bound for the Sea, Mary Ann.

Second verse.

Don't you see that turtle dove, A sitting on yon-der pile? La - menting the loss of its own true love, And so am I for mine, Mary Ann, and so am I for mine, Mary Ann.

Third verse.

5

A lob-ster in a lob-ster pot, A blue fish rigging on a hook, May suffer some, but oh! no not, What I do feel for my Mary Ann, what

I do feel for my Mary Ann.

Fourth verse.

The pride of all the produce rare, That in our kitchen garden grow'd, Was punkins, but none could compare In an-gel form to my Mary Ann, in an-gel form to my Mary Ann.

- 1 "What poor short sighted morning men be,
For we can't calculate
With any sort of certainty.
What is to be our fate. — Mary Ann —
- 2 "How true it is what you did state,
And thus affected me;
That nobody can't calculate,
What is a gwine to be; — Mary Ann —
- 3 "When we retire, can't calculate,
But afore the morn;
Our Heaven will conflagrate
And we be left — forlorn. — Mary Ann —
- 4 "Can't calculate, with no per cission,
On nought beneath the sky;
And so I've come to the decision
That 'twint no use to try — Mary Ann —
- 5 "Ere I've had teach me my tears to flow;
I was once on cheer full;
But now such misery I do know
I'm always, sad & fear full. — Mary Ann —
- 6 "What peace full hours, I once enjoyed,
All on a summers day
But O, my comforts were deceitful
When you did cross my way. — Mary Ann —
- 7 "I saw you dance upon the Green
I hear you sweetly sing
Dear Sally! how I did feel that day
It was a dread full thing. — Mary Ann —
- 8 "Full forty dollars would I give
If we'd continued apart
For tho, you've made my spirit live
You've surely burst my heart. — Chas.
